

HTST 489 – ESPIONAGE & STATE, 1939 to PRESENT

DR. JOHN FERRIS

MONDAY/WEDNESDAY/FRIDAYS – 1200-1250

ST147

This course will study intelligence, intelligence services and their effect on states and societies in the period between 1939 To Present. In particular, it will examine how intelligence has been collected, analysed and used by states, and the nature and role of deception, covert action, propaganda, the denial of intelligence and internal security services.
