Leopoldina, Emil Abderhalden Strasse, Halle/Saale (Germany)
9. “The Political Reorganization of “Grossforschungsanstrengungen” in Nazi-Dominated Neurosciences: The Examples of Strasburg and Leipzig, 1933-1945.” 12.07.2016. (INVITED) 21st Annual Conference of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences at the University of Maastricht, Maastricht, Limburg (The Netherlands).
10. “Introductory Presentation of the Workshop: ‘Neurosciences and the ‘Third Reich’ – New Perspectives.” 12.07.2016. 21st Annual Conference of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences at the University of Maastricht, Maastricht, Limburg (The Netherlands).
11. Impulse Presentation, entitled “From Auguste Deter to Modern Genetic Testing: A Century of Alzheimer Research between Promises, Funding Expenses, and Meagre Therapeutic Success“ to the Discussion Panel/ Internal Workshop on ‘Being Brain: Exploring the Boundaries of Neuroexceptionalism” at the Institute for the History, Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine at the Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz (Germany). July 6, 2016.
12. “Great Minds in Despair: The Forced-Migration of German-Speaking Neuroscientists to North America, 1933-1963.” 01.07.2016. Institute for Advanced Studies (“Forschungskolleg Humanwissenschaften” – Bad Homburg) of the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University of Frankfurt am Main (Germany).
13. “When the Story of a Physician’s Life Echoes That of a Full Century’: The Multifarious Emigration Paths of German-American Neuroanatomist Hartwig Kuhlenbeck (1897-1984).” 30.05.2016. Annual Conference of the Canadian Society for the History of Medicine & Canadian Historical Association, The University of Calgary, Alberta (Canada).
14. “A Question of ‘Time’ and ‘Timing:’ How Mid-19th-Century French Physiologists Changed the Way in Which Medicine Came to Understand the Functioning of the Human and Animal Body.” 07.05.2016. Humboldt Kolleg on “Time” at the Munk School of Global Affairs, The University of Toronto, Ontario (Canada).
15. “From Jena to Tokyo to Philadelphia: The Forced-Migration of German-American Neuroanatomist Hartwig Kuhlenbeck (1897–1984).” 18.03.2016. Annual Conference of the Southern Association for the History of Medicine and Science” at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, NA (USA).
16. “Émigré German-Speaking Neurologists and Psychiatrists in North America, 1933-1963.” 28.08.2015. Workshop-Conference “Writing the History of German-speaking Émigré Neuroscientists and Biomedical Researchers, 1933-1989” at Wadham College, Oxford University (United Kingdom).

17. “Images without Imaging-Techniques? Conceptions of Brain Science and Neuromythological Representations in a History of Science Perspective.” 19.06.2015 (INVITED). Herbert and Nicole Wertheim Leadership in Health Care and Medicine Lecture at the Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine, Florida International University in Miami, FL (USA).
18. “Some Milestones from the History of Neuroscience in the Province of Alberta.” 06.06.2015. 20th Annual Conference of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences at George Washington University, Washington, D.C. (USA).
19. “Migration, Adaptation und Integration: Was wir aus der NS-Zwangsemigration Deutscher Neurowissenschaftler und Psychiater für die Internationalisierung in der modernen Biomedizin lernen koennen” (INVITED). 16. April 2015. Symposium at the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Ulm (Germany).
20. “Sebastian K. Littmann (1931–1986) – A Pioneering Advocate of Family and Community Psychiatry in North America.” 13.3.2015. (INVITED) Sebastian Littmann Keynote Lecture to the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Calgary Cumming School of Medicine, VP Inn Hotel, Calgary, Alberta (Canada)
21. “Looking for Microscopic Changes in the Brain: Neurohistologists and the War Effort at the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute.” 27.9.2014 “The Great War’s Shadow: New Perspectives on the First World War.” International Conference organized by the History Department and the Centre for Military and Strategic Studies at the University of Calgary. Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise Hotel, Lake Louise, Alberta, (Canada).
22. “Between Scientific Holism and Applied Mental Health – German-Speaking Émigré Psychiatrists and Neurologists in North America between 1933 and 1963.” 9.7.2014. Oxford Centre for Health, Medicine and Society & Department for History, Philosophy and Religion, Oxford Brookes University, (United Kingdom). 9.7.2014.
23. “Mechanized Warfare and Humanized Medicine – On the Reciprocal Conditions of Brain Injuries and Neurorehabilitation in Kurt Goldstein’s (1878-1965) Program of Holist Neurology, 1916-1933.” 30.6.-5.7.2014. 19th Annual Meeting of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences. Royal Academy of Science, Palais des Académies (Belgium). 1. July 2014.
24. “The «Brain Gain Thesis» Revisited – Considerations Regarding the Impact of German-Speaking Émigré Psychiatrists on North-American Research Institutions,” Second Andrew W. Mellon Conference at the World History Center: “The Life Sciences after World War II: Institutional Change and International Connections.” 15.-17.05.2014 (Convenor: Prof. Patrick Manning), University of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (USA) 17. May, 2014.
25. “On the Geographical Perspective in Medicine: Preventive Medicine and Climate Change between 1200 and 1900.” 10.-11.05.2014. Fourth Humboldt Kolleg on “Earth,” Humboldt Association of Canada, The Banff Centre for the Arts, Banff, Alberta (Canada) 11. May, 2014.
26. “The Process of Forced-Migration as ‘PR Process?’ German-American Psychiatrist Lothar B. Kalinowsky (1899-1992).“ 08.-10.5.2014. American Association for the History of Medicine at the Renaissance Downtown Hotel in Chicago, IL (USA). May 9, 2014.

27. “Eine Neubestimmung der ‘Brain Drain’ und ‘Brain Gain’ These wissenschaftlicher Migrationsphaenomene zwischen Deutschland und Nordamerika – Das Fallbeispiel zwangsemigrierter Neurowissenschaftler in den 1930er und 1940er Jahren”. Symposium at the Institute for the History of Medicine at the Heinrich Heine University of Duesseldorf (Germany) (INVITED). 15. April 2014.
28. “Von der ‚Technisierung‘ des Sterbens durch das intensivmedizinische Konzept des ‚Hirntods‘”. Medical Faculty at the Heinrich Heine University of Duesseldorf (Germany) (INVITED). 15. April 2014.
29. “What the Escape of Neuroscientists from Nazi Germany Tells Us About Modern Science”. Department of History & Classics and Situating Science Cluster of Canada, Alberta Node. Telus Centre, The University of Alberta, Edmonton (Canada) (INVITED). 11. April 2014.
30. “On the Brain – Eighteenth Century Matters.” Presentation given to the “Eighteenth Century Studies Group;” English Department. Taylor Family Digital Library (TFDL), Special Collections, University of Calgary, Alberta (Canada). 06. Nov. 2013.
31. “Zum transatlantischen Verhaeltnis von ‘Brain Drain’ und ‘Brain Gain’ im 20. Jahrhundert – deutschsprachige Beitrage zu neurowissenschaftlichen und -ethischen Forschungsfeldern in Nordamerika”. Medical Faculty at the University of Cologne, Cologne (Germany) (INVITED). 09. Oct. 2013.
32. “Historical ‘Hypes’ in the Interest in ‘Scientific Method’”. A Themed Session on ‘Scientific Method’ in the History of Neuroscience Interest Group (HONIG) at the University of Calgary Faculty of Medicine, Calgary, Alberta (Canada). 07. Oct. 2013.
33. “Zur modernen Bildgebung des Gehirns. Wissenschaftliche, kulturelle und neuromythologische Perspektiven.” 50th Colloquium on Insurance Medicine: “Cycle on the History of Medical Examinations – Methodology and Critique of Methods.” Psychiatry Division of the Swiss Injury Insurance Agency (SUVA). Lucerne (Switzerland) (INVITED). 19. Sept. 2013.
34. “Learning Soft Skills the Hard Way: Historiographical Considerations on the Cultural Adjustment Process of German-Speaking Émigré Neuroscientists in Canada and the United States, 1933 to 1963”. XXIV. International Congress of History of Science and Technology. 21.07.-28.07.2013. University of Manchester (United Kingdom). 23. July 2013.
35. “From ‘Neurological Laboratories’ and ‘Research Divisions’ to ‘Group Research Activities’: Some Philosophical and Historical Reflections on the Early Interdisciplinary Research Centres in German-Speaking Neuroscience (1885 to 1935).” Colloquium of the Centre for Values, Ethics and the Law in Medicine (VELiM), Faculty of Medicine, University of Sydney, New South Wales (Australia) (INVITED). 20. June, 2013.
36. “Eugenics Ideals, Racial Anthropology and the Emigration of German-American Psychiatric Geneticist Franz Josef Kallmann (1897-1965).” 18.-22.6.2013. 18th Annual Meeting of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences. University of Sydney, New South Wales (Australia). 19. June 2013.

37. “The Emerging Neuroscience Laboratories at the Beginning of the 20th Century.” Situating Science Research Workshop (SSHRC): Where is the Laboratory Now? Representation, Intervention and Realism in 19th and 20th Century Biomedical Sciences at the University of Calgary Field Station, Barrier Lake, Kananaskis, AB (Canada). 08. June 2013.
38. “Ousting Researchers and Transferring Things: On the Conditions of Neurophysiological Research in German-Speaking Refugee Neuroscientists in North-America, 1933 to 1963.” Annual Conference of the Canadian Society for the History of Medicine and the Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science at the University of Victoria, BC (Canada) (INVITED). 03. June 2013.
39. “From ‘Neurological Laboratories’ to Interdisciplinary ‘Centres of Brain Research’: Otfried Foerster, Wilder Penfield, and Early Neuroscience in Breslau and Montreal.” Nickerson Lecture in Neuro-History. Faculty of Medicine, McGill University, Montreal (Canada) (INVITED). 02. May 2013.
40. “From Neuropathology to Psychiatry and Beyond – Revising the ‘Brain Gain Thesis’: German-Speaking Émigré Neuropathologists in North America after 1933“. SSHRC Research Workshop: “The Transnational Migration of Physicians in the Twentieth Century“. Institute for Health and Social Policy, McGill University, Montreal (Canada) (INVITED). 22. Sept. 2012.
41. “Acculturation, Incorporation and Culture Shock: German-speaking Émigré-Psychiatrists and Neurologists in North-America during and after the Second World War.” The Richardson History of Psychiatry Research Seminar, Cornell University – Joan and Sanford I. Weill Medical College, New York (USA) (INVITED). 5. Sept. 2012.
42. “Chasing veins in vain? On the historical succession of vascular theories in multiple sclerosis research“ (with Aravind Ganesh). 19.-23.6.2012. 17th Annual Meeting of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences. Fondazione Giorgio Cini, Island of San Giorgio Maggiore, Venice (Italy). 21. June 2012.
43. “Alexander von Humboldt’s Path from Galvanism to Animal Electricity“ (with Stanley Finger and Mario Piccolino). 19.-23.6.2012. 17th Annual Meeting of the International Society for the History of the Neurosciences. Fondazione Giorgio Cini, Island of San Giorgio Maggiore Venice (Italy). 4 June, 2012.
44. “Sport as Neurorehabilitation versus Sport as Functional Enhancement: Some Early Considerations in the Therapeutic Concepts of German Émigré-Neurosurgeon Ludwig Guttmann (1899-1980).” North American Society for Sport History (NASSH). June 1-4, 2012. Hotel Shattuck Plaza. Berkeley, California (USA). 4. June 2012.
45. “The Making of a New Research Field: On the Pursuit of Interdisciplinarity in the German Neuromorphological Sciences, 1910–1945“. Office of the History of Science and Technology, University of California, Berkeley (USA) (INVITED). 2. May, 2012.

46. “Research Interest ‘versus’ Patient Autonomy – Conflicting Tensions in the History of Brain Stimulation Approaches”. Lecture Series on “Ethics”, Apeiron Society for the Practice of Philosophy, Scandinavian Centre, Calgary, Alberta (Canada) 6. March, 2012.
47. “The Brain Gain Thesis” revisited? Considerations regarding the impact of German-speaking émigré psychiatrists on North-American research institutions" In: The Emigration of Jewish Psychiatrists from 1933 Onwards.“ Symposium of the Presidential Commission on the History of German Psychiatry during the National Socialist Period; annual congress of the German Association for Psychiatry, Psychotherapy and Neurology (DGPPN). Nov. 23-26, 2011; International Congress Centre (ICC), Berlin (Germany) (INVITED). 24. November, 2011.
48. “Sport als fruehe Neurorehabilitation: Einige historische Ueberlegungen zur Veraenderung des therapeutischen Ansatzes im Exil bei dem deutsch-britischen Neurochirurgen Sir Ludwig Guttmann (1899-1980).” 21st Annual Meeting of the DGGN. 29.9.-1.10.2011. Swiss Epilepsy Centre, University of Zurich, Zurich, (Switzerland) 1. October, 2011.
49. “The «Eugenics Paradox»: Core Beliefs of Progressivism versus Relicts of Medical Traditionalism – The Example of Kurt Goldstein”. Workshop: “Eugenics and Psychiatry” at the First Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference, Banff Centre for the Arts, Alberta (Canada). 21. June, 2011.
50. “Introductory Presentation of the Eugenics and Psychiatry Workshop” (with Robert Wilson) at the First Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference, Banff Centre for the Arts, Alberta (Canada). 21. June, 2011.
51. “Introductory Presentation of the Mind and Body Workshop I and II” at the First Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference, Banff Centre for the Arts, Alberta (Canada). 20. June, 2011.
52. “Mapping Mind and Brain in «Modern» Ways – On the Emergence of Interdisciplinary Approaches in the German Neuromorphological Sciences, 1910 to 1945”. ISHN Presidential Lecture during the Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference at the University of Calgary/The Banff Centre for the Performing Arts, Alberta (Canada) (INVITED). 20. June, 2011.
53. “Emergence, Evolution, and Resolution: The History of Multiple Sclerosis Investigations in Canada between 1850 and 1950“ (with Aravind Ganesh). First Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference, University of Calgary, Alberta (Canada). 19. June, 2011.
54. “Brain Research and Art? Some Considerations on the Relationship of the Practices of Natural Science and Experimentation in the Modern Neurosciences.” (with Theresa Bruncke). Conference Symposium I on “NeuroArt” at the First Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference, University of Calgary, Alberta (Canada) (INVITED). 16. June, 2011.
55. “Mihály Lenhossék (1863-1937), the Neuronal Growth Cone, and International Competition in Modern Neuroscience.” (with Andrew Bulloch). First Joint ISHN and Cheiron Conference, University of Calgary, Alberta (Canada). 16. June, 2011.

56. “From Aristotle’s ‘Pneuma’ to Lavoisier’s ‘Oxygen’ – Some Major Physiological Trajectories in the History of Medicine”, Third Humboldt Kolleg on “Air”, University of British Columbia and Green College, Vancouver (Canada) 12. May, 2011.
57. Academic Commentary “Popular Sex: Media and Sexuality in Germany in the Early 20th Century” – on Prof. Kathrin Peters, Braunschweig Academy of Arts, Germany; Prof. Maria Makela, California College of the Arts, San Francisco, USA; and Prof. Helga Thorson, University of Victoria, British Columbia.
