This course is an introductory course for non-majors on world history organized around the theme of “Revolutions!” The course will cover different kinds of revolutions – political, social, economic, technological - from approximately 1750 to the present. Given the broad scope of the course, lectures will focus on big themes through selected case studies to help students organize their thoughts and ideas.

Course Objectives:
By the end of this course, successful students will be expected to:

• Explain some of the key approaches and interpretations of world history
• Critically read and assess primary and secondary sources and situate arguments within broader historical debates
• Debate historical problems by engaging with other students and scholarship
• Expand their critical thinking, analytical, and communication skills

Classroom Policies:
Students are expected to arrive in class prepared to learn and discuss material when appropriate. I encourage student questions! If you have a question about lecture material, or simply need to have a point clarified, please do not hesitate to ask.

- Please set all cell phones/paging devices to “Manner Mode” when attending lectures.
- Demonstrate respect for your colleagues’ learning environment by refraining from engaging in private conversations during lectures or using laptop/notebook computers for any other purpose than taking notes.
- If you must leave the class during the lecture for whatever reason, please do so quickly and quietly to minimize the distraction to other students.
- It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that they know the date, time and location of the Registrar-scheduled final exam.

Sometimes absences from class are unavoidable. If such an absence happens to fall on the date of a scheduled exam or assignment PLEASE NOTIFY ME AS SOON AS POSSIBLE VIA EMAIL OR TELEPHONE to make alternate arrangements.

Program Advising and Student Information Resources:

Writing:
All written assignments and written exam responses are assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) and general clarity and organization. Research papers must be properly referenced.

Red Box Policy:
Essays and other assignments may be dropped into the red box located outside of the History Department office (Social Sciences, Room 656). Please include the following information on your assignment: 1) course name and number, 2) instructor, 3) your name, and 4) your student number. Assignments received after 4:00 p.m. are date stamped the next business day. We do not time stamp any papers. Please do not bring your paper into the office to be stamped. The box is emptied at 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday.

Plagiarism:
Plagiarism occurs when one submits or presents one’s work in a course, or ideas and/or passages in a written piece of work, as if it were one’s own work done expressly for that particular course, when, in fact, it is not. As noted in The History Student's Handbook https://hist.ucalgary.ca/sites/hist.ucalgary.ca/files/history-students-handbook-2019.pdf

Plagiarism may take several forms:
- Failing to cite sources properly
- Submitting borrowed, purchased, and/or ghostwritten papers
- Submitting one’s own work for more than one course without the permission of the instructor(s) involved
- Extensive paraphrasing of one or a few sources, even when referenced properly, unless the essay is a critical analysis of those works
- Using notes does not justify the sustained presentation of another author’s language and ideas as one’s own

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence and written work that appears to contain plagiarized passages will not be graded. All such work is reported to the Faculty of Arts’ associate deans of students who will apply the penalties specified in the University of Calgary Calendar, Section K. https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html

Copyright:
Instructors in all University of Calgary courses strictly adhere to the Copyright Act regulations and educational exceptions permitted by the Act for both print and digital course material. No copyrighted material may be placed on course D2L or web sites without the prior permission of the copyright holders. In some cases, you may be required to purchase a print course pack from the University of Calgary bookstore or consult books on reserve at the library. For more information on the University of Calgary’s copyright policy, see http://library.ucalgary.ca/copyright.

Academic Accommodations (implemented July 1, 2015):
The student accommodation policy can be found at: ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Students needing an accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should contact Student Accessibility Services (https://www.ucalgary.ca/access/) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.

Students needing an accommodation based on a protected ground other than disability should contact, preferably in writing, the course instructor.
