

HTST 383

Military History: Cold War and Beyond

Summer Term: MW 0900-1145

Students practise hiding under desks in case of nuclear attack

HTST 383 will examine the military history of the Cold War, and its influence on the present day world. Topics of discussion will include:

- The influence of the Cold War on societies and national economies
- Proxy wars
- Espionage
- Political scandals
- Nuclear proliferation and
- MAD (Mutually Assured Destruction)

West Germans seek contact with relatives caught in Soviet sector

Instructor: Russ Benneweis