Written Assignments:

This class has a 10-12 page (including bibliography and endnotes/footnotes) essay assignment due on any subject covered by the time-period of this class and should include primary source material. Written assignments are expected to be typed and double-spaced using standard fonts and margins and should conform to the standards identified in the Department of History’s Essay Writing Guide. The Essay Writing Guide can be purchased at the University of Calgary bookstore or a copy is available online at the Department of History’s Website (http://hist.ucalgary.ca).

Written assignments will be graded on the following criteria:

Organization: Are the ideas in the paper organized efficiently? Does the argument flow logically and coherently?

Writing style/Editing: How is the paper written? Are there any issues with passive voice, punctuation, tense agreements? Does the paper require any editing, or better word choices? Does each page have a number? This section will also evaluate adherence to footnote/endnote conventions as well as the structure of the bibliography and proper essay formatting.

Quality of Research: Evaluates both the quality of the sources consulted and their appropriateness for the subject as well as the extent to which those sources are used in writing the paper.

Originality/Quality of analysis: Does the paper present a standard interpretation/narrative or does it strive to go beyond the basic narrative to assess and analyze the material under consideration? Generally speaking, the better the analysis, the better the paper.

General comment on sources for written assignments: When students submit a written assignment that calls for the use of external materials, bear in mind that it is expected that academic sources will be consulted. These include scholarly journal articles, books, and sources – not encyclopedia, survey textbooks, or notes from in-class lectures.

Classroom Policies:
Students are expected to arrive in class prepared to learn and discuss material when appropriate. I encourage student questions! If you have a question about lecture material, or simply need to have a point clarified, please do not hesitate to ask.

- Please set all cell phones/paging devices to “Manner Mode” when attending lectures.
- Demonstrate respect for your colleagues’ learning environment by refraining from engaging in private conversations during lectures or using laptop/notebook computers for any other purpose than taking notes.
- If you must leave the class during the lecture for whatever reason, please do so quickly and quietly to minimize the distraction to other students.
- It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that they know the date, time and location of the Registrar-scheduled final exam.

Sometimes absences from class are unavoidable. If such an absence happens to fall on the date of a scheduled exam or assignment PLEASE NOTIFY ME AS SOON AS POSSIBLE VIA EMAIL OR TELEPHONE to make alternate arrangements.

Writing:
All written assignments and written exam responses are assessed partly on writing skills. Writing skills include surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.) and general clarity and organization. Research papers must be properly referenced.

Red Box Policy:
Essays and other assignments may be dropped into the red box located outside of the History Department office (Social Sciences, Room 656). Please include the following information on your assignment: 1) course name and number, 2) instructor, 3) your name, and 4) your student number. Assignments received after 4:00 p.m. are date stamped the next business day. We do not time stamp any papers. Please do not bring your paper into the office to be stamped. The box is emptied at 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday.

Plagiarism:
Plagiarism occurs when one submits or presents one’s work in a course, or ideas and/or passages in a written piece of work, as if it were one’s own work done expressly for that particular course, when, in fact, it is not. As noted in The History Student’s Handbook https://hist.ucalgary.ca/sites/hist.ucalgary.ca/files/history-students-handbook-2019.pdf

Plagiarism may take several forms:
- Failing to cite sources properly
- Submitting borrowed, purchased, and/or ghostwritten papers
- Submitting one’s own work for more than one course without the permission of the instructor(s) involved
- Extensive paraphrasing of one or a few sources, even when referenced properly, unless the essay is a critical analysis of those works
- Using notes does not justify the sustained presentation of another author’s language and ideas as one’s own

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence and written work that appears to contain plagiarized passages will not be graded. All such work is reported to the Faculty of Arts’ associate deans of students who will apply the penalties specified in the University of Calgary Calendar, Section K https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html

Copyright:
Instructors in all University of Calgary courses strictly adhere to the Copyright Act regulations and educational exceptions permitted by the Act for both print and digital course material. No copyrighted material may be placed on course D2L or web sites without the prior permission of the copyright holders. In some cases, you may be required to purchase a print course pack from the University of Calgary bookstore or consult books on reserve at the library.
