

HTST 489 – ESPIONAGE & STATE, 500 BC TO 1939

DR. JOHN FERRIS

MONDAY/WEDNESDAY/FRIDAYS – 1100 – 1150

SS109

This course will study intelligence, intelligence services and their effect on states and societies in the period between 1400 BCE—1939 ACE. In particular, it will examine how intelligence has been collected, analysed and used by states, and the nature and role of deception, covert action, propaganda, the denial of intelligence and internal security services.